Outside Milwaukee Frozen Custard at the Ice Cream Social on Aug 26, 2007— Dean Turner, Alan Feldman, Dan Healey, Jack White, Bob McKenna, and Eddie Bunch's cars.

All patiently awaiting our turn to order—special of the day was “Austin Healey Red Raspberry” Isabelle Bunch, Anil and Shanti Fatterpaker, Missy McKenna, Alan & Marian Feldman, Sue Turner, Pam White, Don & Kathi Margeson.

Sue Turner could not wait to bite into her cone—Don had to help her hold it!

We're all happy now!

Dean Turner - 640

Don Margeson - 535

Mike Oritt - 505

Eddie Bunch - 390 (partially not as a club officer)

Jack White & Bob McKenna - 350

Dan Healey - 355

Anil Fatterpacker - 335

Kirby Nelson - 320

Scottish games

The morning drive to the Scottish Games started out on the chilly side. Allen Feldman, Bob and Missy McKenna stopped by our house to follow Dean and I to Sky Meadows State Park.

When we arrived Kirby & Ann Nelson, Mac Holt, Fred & Anne Hufnagel and Charley & Marlene Darley were already there. There were 10 Healeys (2 from Pa.) and close to 100 other classic cars from far and near.

The sun did come out but the wind was vicious while we watched and visited the different activities. I think everyone had a good time.

A Note from our President

Dear Members:

I hope everyone did get to read your newsletter editor, Isabelle Bunch's piece, A Trip to Conclave 2007, in the September issue of Healey Marque, page 18 and 19, complete with two pictures. The funny story relates our infamous trip to Burlington VT this summer for Conclave 2007. I was along on that trip and it may sound funny now but it sure was not so funny then. Well maybe it was funny then too, especially when a certain doctor passed a kidney stone in a gas station's bathroom. I suggested he frame the stone and title it Conclave 2007. Four flat tires along the way was not very funny though.

Also in that same issue are a couple of pictures of our Michael Oritt doing some concourse scoring on page 11 and 12. Yes, that is Michael in the Healey Driver Tee shirt on page 12. And, we have on page 17 Dean Turner and "companion" listed as a winner for 5th place in the Funkhana competition. (Hell that was no companion that was his wife!)

Lastly, on one of the local television stations our own Don Margeson was interviewed. What a treat to hear someone that was articulate being interviewed that did not constantly say, "You know, you know"

I want to mention again a couple of outstanding events coming up soon. The Hunt Country Classic is October 14 in Middleburg VA where we will have our next club meeting; <http://www.mgcarclubdc.com/hcc/hcc.main.html>

AND the Capital Area Austin Healey Club Poker Run Road Tour created and produced by our Rally master Ralf Berthiez is on November 4. A registration form can be downloaded at each web site location. Go to our > web site for more information on this remarkable rally; <http://www.capitalhealeys.org/> This rally is open to certain other cars, which should make the event very interesting. The proceeds are for the Make A Wish Foundation and your registration fee may be claimed as a > charitable deduction on your income taxes next year. Including in the registration fee will be lunch and refreshments at the beginning and end of the run.

So there you have it folks, a listing of our stars in the current issue of Healey Marque as well as a couple
